Even though Sanskrit is India's most sacred and ancient language, it is not widely spoken. This has linked language to the fear of extinction. World Sanskrit Day is celebrated to spread awareness and respect for India's most ancient language. It also aims to promote the revitalization of the language. The programme started with the speech of Sri Durgamohan Mandal, faculty member of Department of Sanskrit. Then all guests were welcome by students, the lamp was lightened in the resonance of chanting of Vedic Mantra and all the audience were addressed with the welcome speech of OIC Madam of the College. Next, Dr. Sudipta Pramanik, HOD of Sanskrit and Dr. Prosenjit Ghosh, HOD of Zoology and Secretary of Teachers Council delivered lecture on the subject of the programme. Thereafter various cultural programme was performed by the students.

Dr. Amal Kumar Bhattacharya, the chief guest of the programme delivered holistic speech on 'Utility of Sanskrit Language in Present Day'. Then vote of thanks was given by Dr. Soma Bandyopadhyay, faculty member of Department of Sanskrit following Santi Mantra by the students at the end. In all respect this programme became a grand success and all participants were enriched.
