Objective of the Event:

One career guidance lecture was organized by the Career Counselling Committee of the college in collaboration with Barrackpore Air Force Station to guide our students in choosing the right path and encourage them to pursue a career in the Indian Air Force (IAF) on November 9, 2022 in Seminar Hall No. 2.

Brief Description of the Event

The programme was commenced with the welcome address by the OIC/ Principal, Dr Tulika Talukdar (Lahiri). The inspiring inaugural address was followed by the main lecture on the above-mentioned topic delivered by the Wing Commander of Barrackpore Air Force Station. The speaker discussed the eligibility criteria to appear in a recruitment rally to join the IAF as Airmen in Group 'Y' (Non-Technical) Medical Assistant trade at the Air Force Station Barrackpore, West Bengal. He also motivated the students to join the Indian Air Force at different levels of entry. There was also an interactive session with the participants and students were enlightened with the importance of the same. The programme ended with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Sarwar Ahmed (Convenor, Career Counselling Committee).

Outcome of the Event

The programme was found successful in encouraging students to join the Indian Air Force (IAF). Our college is extremely indebted to the Wing Commander and the entire team of Barrackpore Air Force Station for the seminar.
